Docket No. 17-0093-R5

STIPULATION AND CONSENT TO ISSUANCE OF AN ORDER OF PROHIBITION

Barbara Jo Byrd (“Byrd”), former employee or institution-affiliated party of Progressions Credit Union, Spokane, Washington, and the National Credit Union Administration Board (“NCUAB”), acting by and through its Regional Director, hereby make this Stipulation and Consent to Issuance of an Order of Prohibition (“Stipulation”).

Byrd and the NCUAB hereby stipulate and agree as follows:

1. Jurisdiction. Pursuant to its authority under Section 206 of the FCUA, 12 U.S.C. § 1786, the NCUAB is the appropriate Federal agency to maintain an administrative action against an “institution-affiliated party.” Byrd is an “institution-affiliated party” within the meaning of Section 206(r) of the FCUA, 12 U.S.C. § 1786(r). Byrd admits the jurisdiction of the NCUAB over her and over the subject matter of this action.

2. Factual Basis. The NCUAB is of the opinion that grounds exist to initiate an administrative prohibition action against Byrd pursuant to Section 206(g) of the Federal Credit Union Act ("FCUA"), 12 U.S.C. § 1786(g), as explained in the letter to her dated August 8, 2017. Byrd, without admitting or denying that said grounds exist (except those set forth as to Jurisdiction in paragraph 1), desires to avoid the time, cost and expense of administrative litigation.

3. Consent. Byrd consents to the issuance by NCUAB of the attached Order of Prohibition ("Order"). NCUAB hereby foregoes all other potential administrative claims and charges that have been or might be asserted by NCUAB against Byrd arising out of her position with Progressions Credit Union.

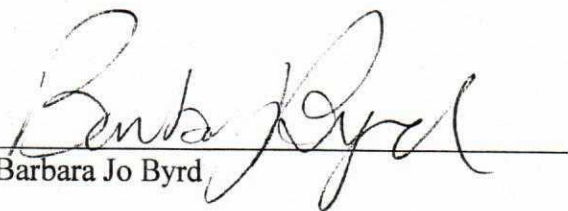

4. Finality. Byrd consents to the issuance of the Order, and agrees to comply with all of its terms. The Order complies with all requirements of law, and is issued pursuant to Section 206 of the FCUA, 12 U.S.C. § 1786. Upon its issuance, the Order is final, effective and fully enforceable by the NCUAB. The laws of the United States of America govern the construction and validity of this Stipulation and the Order, and the section and paragraph headings do not affect the interpretation of this Stipulation or the Order.

5. Waivers. Byrd waives her right to an administrative hearing provided by Section 206(g)(4) of the FCUA, 12 U.S.C. § 1786(g)(4). Byrd further waives her right to seek judicial review of the Order, or otherwise challenge the validity or legality of the Order.

6. Other Actions. Byrd agrees that neither this Stipulation or the Order releases, discharges, compromises, settles, dismisses, resolves, or in any way affects any actions, claims, charges against, or liabilities that arise in connection with her former or current affiliations with Progressions Credit Union or any affiliate thereof, and that may be or have been brought by any other Federal or state government agency or entity other than the NCUAB.

WHEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing, Byrd and the NCUAB execute this Stipulation and Consent to the Issuance of an Order of Prohibition.
