ORDER OF PROHIBITION

Pursuant to Section 206(i)(1)(C) of the Federal Credit Union Act, 12 U.S.C. § 1786(i)(1)(C), you are hereby notified that you are prohibited from participating in any manner in the affairs of any federally insured credit union. This prohibition results from your conviction for activities you engaged in during your affiliation with Georgia-Pacific Toledo Employee Federal Credit Union, Toledo, OR¹.

This prohibition is effective immediately upon service. In accordance with Section 206(g)(7)(A) of the Federal Credit Union Act, 12 U.S.C. § 1786(g)(7)(A), this Order shall constitute a prohibition from further participation in any manner in the affairs of any federally insured financial institution, or other entity identified therein, without the written permission of the appropriate federal regulatory agency. This Order has been issued based upon the following information. On October 18, 2008, you pleaded guilty to one count of Bank Larceny, 18 U.S.C. 2113(b), sentenced by the U.S. District Court, District of Oregon to twenty-four months imprisonment, thirty-six months probation, and ordered to pay $506,161.86 in restitution.

You committed the offense of which you were convicted in your capacity as an institution-affiliated party of Georgia-Pacific Toledo Employees Federal Credit Union. Due to the nature of the offense your continued participation in the affairs of any federally insured credit union may pose a threat to the interests of credit union members and may threaten to impair public confidence in the credit union involved.

NOTICE OF HEARING

Pursuant to Section 206(i)(3), of the Federal Credit Union Act, 12 U.S.C. § 1786(i)(3), you may request in writing, within thirty days of service of this Order, an opportunity for a hearing at which you may present evidence and argument that your continued participation in the affairs of any federally insured credit union would not, or would not be likely to, pose a threat to the interests of that credit union's members or threaten to impair public confidence in the credit union. Pursuant to 12 C.F.R. § 747.306, your request must state with particularity the relief desired, the grounds, and must include, when available, supporting evidence.

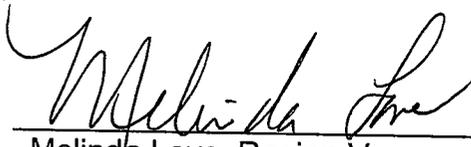

Any such request should be sent to: Secretary of the Board, National Credit Union Administration, 1775 Duke Street, Alexandria, Virginia 22314-3428, with a copy sent to John K. Ianno, Associate General Counsel at the same address. The hearing would be held in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area, in accordance with Subpart D of Part 747 of the National Credit Union Administration's Rules and Regulations, 12 C.F.R. § 747.301 et. seq. You may appear at the hearing personally, through counsel, or personally with counsel. The proceedings will be recorded and you will be entitled to a transcript after payment of the costs thereof. Witnesses may be called in the discretion of the NCUA Board. If witnesses are permitted, you may cross examine any witnesses called by the NCUA's enforcement staff, and they in turn may cross-examine any witnesses called by you. The Presiding Officer of the hearing will make his or her recommendations to the NCUA Board, where possible, within ten business days following the close of the record.

PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF ORDER OF PROHIBITION

Pursuant to Section 206(k)(2) of the Federal Credit Union Act, 12 U.S.C. § 1786(k)(2), any violation of this Order may subject you to a civil money penalty. In addition, pursuant to Section 206(l) of the Federal Credit Union Act, 12 U.S.C. § 1786(l), any violation of this Order is a felony offense that is punishable by imprisonment of up to five years and a fine of up to $1,000,000.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of three (3) years.

The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter.

The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)

If this judgment imposes a fine or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine or restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release in accordance with the Schedule of Payments set forth in the Criminal Monetary Penalties section of this judgment.

The defendant shall comply with the Standard Conditions of Supervised Release that have been adopted by this court as set forth in this judgment. The defendant shall also comply with the Special Conditions of Supervision as set forth below and any additional conditions attached to this judgment.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA if required by law at the direction of the probation officer.
2. The defendant shall pay full restitution in the amount of $506,161.86, payable immediately to victims identified in this Judgment. If there is any unpaid balance at the time of release from custody, it shall be paid at the maximum installment possible and not less than $100.00 per month.
3. The defendant is prohibited from incurring new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer.
4. The defendant shall authorize release to the US Probation Officer any and all financial information by execution of a release of financial information form, or by any other appropriate means, as directed by the probation officer.
5. The defendant's employment shall be subject to approval by the probation officer.
6. The defendant shall disclose all assets and liabilities to the probation officer. The defendant shall not transfer, sell, give away, or otherwise convey any asset with a fair market value in excess of $500.00 without the approval of the probation officer.
7. The defendant shall not make applications for any loan, enter into any credit arrangement, or enter into residential or business lease agreement without approval of the probation officer.
8. The defendant shall take psychotropic medication, if medically approved, for the treatment of a mental or emotional disorder as directed by his probation officer.
9. The defendant shall participate in a mental health treatment program approved by the probation officer.
10. The defendant shall maintain a single checking and/or savings account in his/her name. The defendant shall deposit into this account all income, monetary gains or other pecuniary proceeds, and make use of this account for payment of all personal expenses. All other accounts must be disclosed to the probation officer.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION AND SUPERVISED RELEASE

The Judges of the District of Oregon adopt the following standard conditions of probation and supervised release to apply in every case in which probation and/or supervised release is imposed upon a defendant. The individual judge may impose other conditions deemed advisable in individual cases of probation or supervised release supervision, as consistent with existing or future law.

1. The defendant shall report in person to the probation office for the district to which he or she is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime and shall not illegally possess a controlled substance. Revocation of probation or supervised release is mandatory for illegal possession of a controlled substance.
3. The defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive, or dangerous device.
4. If the defendant illegally uses drugs or abuses alcohol, has a history of drug or alcohol abuse, or drug use or possession is determined to be an element of the defendant's criminal history or instant offense, the defendant shall participate in a substance abuse treatment program as directed by the probation officer which may include urinalysis testing to determine if the defendant has used drugs or alcohol. In addition to urinalysis testing that may be part of a formal drug treatment program, the defendant shall submit up to eight (8) urinalysis tests per month.
5. The defendant shall submit to a search of his/her person, residence, office or vehicle, when conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
6. The defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer.
7. The defendant shall report to the probation officer as directed by the court or probation officer, and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
8. The defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer. The defendant may decline to answer inquiries if a truthful response would tend to incriminate him/her. Such a refusal to answer may constitute grounds for revocation.
9. The defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities to the best of his or her financial ability.
10. The defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
11. The defendant shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of any change in residence or employment.
12. The defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician. If, at any time, the probation officer has reasonable cause to believe the defendant is using illegal drugs or is abusing alcohol, the defendant shall submit to urinalysis testing, breathalyzer testing, or reasonable examination of the arms, neck, face, and lower legs.
13. The defendant shall not knowingly frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered.
14. The defendant shall not knowingly associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not knowingly associate with any person convicted of a felony, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
15. The defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any reasonable time at home or elsewhere, and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
16. The defendant shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.
17. The defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informant or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court.
18. As directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by his or her criminal record or personal history and characteristics, and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such a notification requirement. This requirement will be exercised only when the probation officer believes a reasonably foreseeable risk exists or a law mandates such notice. Unless the probation officer believes the defendant presents an immediate threat to the safety of an identifiable individual, notice shall be delayed so the probation officer can arrange for a court hearing and the defendant can obtain legal counsel.
