STIPULATION AND CONSENT TO ISSUANCE OF ORDER OF PROHIBITION AND CEASE AND DESIST ORDER WITH ORDER OF RESTITUTION

Rhonda Hitt (“Hitt”), former employee or institution-affiliated party of Ft. Worth Star-Telegram Employees Federal Credit Union, Fort Worth, TX, and the National Credit Union Administration Board (“NCUAB”), acting by and through its Counsel, hereby make this Stipulation and Consent to Issuance of an Order of Prohibition and to Cease and Desist with Restitution (“Stipulation”).

Hitt and the NCUAB hereby stipulate and agree as follows:

1. Consideration. The NCUAB is of the opinion that grounds exist to initiate an administrative prohibition and a cease and desist action against Hitt pursuant to Section 206(g) and (e) of the Federal Credit Union Act (“FCUA”), 12 U.S.C. § 1786(g) and (e). Hitt, without admitting or denying that said grounds exist (except those set forth as to Jurisdiction in paragraph 2), desires to avoid the time, cost and expense of administrative litigation. Accordingly, Hitt consents to the issuance by NCUAB of an Order of Prohibition, effective July 1, 2011 and to Cease and Desist with Restitution (“Order”) in the amount of $4,383.49 paid to Ft. Worth Star-Telegram Employees Federal Credit Union no later than July 1, 2011, in consideration of the settlement, compromise and resolution of all potential administrative claims and charges that have been or might be asserted by NCUAB against Hitt arising out of her position with Ft. Worth Star-Telegram Employees Federal Credit Union.

2. Jurisdiction. Pursuant to its authority under Section 206 of the FCUA, 12 U.S.C. § 1786, the NCUAB is the appropriate Federal agency to maintain an administrative action against an “institution-affiliated party.” Hitt is an “institution-affiliated party” within the meaning of Section 206(r) of the FCUA, 12 U.S.C. § 1786(r). Accordingly, Hitt admits the jurisdiction of the NCUAB over her and over the subject matter of this action.

3. Finality. Hitt consents to the issuance of the Order, and agrees to comply with all of its terms. The Order complies with all requirements of law, and is issued pursuant to Section 206 of the FCUA, 12 U.S.C. § 1786. Upon its issuance, the Order is final, effective and fully enforceable by the NCUAB. The laws of the United States of America govern the construction and validity of this Stipulation and the Order, and the section and paragraph headings do not affect the interpretation of this Stipulation or the Order.

4. Waivers. Hitt waives her right to an administrative hearing provided by Section 206(g)(4) of the FCUA, 12 U.S.C. § 1786(g)(4). Hitt further waives her right to seek judicial review of the Order, or otherwise challenge the validity or legality of the Order.

5. Other Actions. Pursuant to this Stipulation, Hitt hereby agrees that the Order is solely for the purpose of settling and resolving NCUAB's claims against her, as provided by paragraph 1 of this Stipulation, and does not release, discharge, compromise, settle, dismiss, resolve, or in any way affect any actions, claims, charges against, or liabilities that arise in connection with her former or current affiliations with Ft. Worth Star-Telegram Employees Federal Credit Union, or any affiliate thereof, and that may be or have been brought by any other Federal or state government agency or entity other than the NCUAB.

WHEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing, Hitt and the NCUAB execute this Stipulation and Consent to the Issuance of an Order of Prohibition and to Cease and Desist with Restitution.
