NCUA Board Cancels Closed Meeting

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (May 11, 2012) – The National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) Board has agreed to cancel the closed Board meeting previously scheduled for Monday, May 14.

There is no change in the scheduling of the open and closed Board meetings scheduled for Thursday, May 24.

NCUA is the independent federal agency created by the U.S. Congress to regulate, charter, and supervise federal credit unions. With the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. Government, NCUA operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, insuring the deposits of nearly 92 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the overwhelming majority of state-chartered credit unions.
