Jane Walters Named NCUA Region II Director

Alexandria, Va., February 23, 2007 – The National Credit Union Administration Board has selected Deputy Executive Director Jane Walters to be Capital Region II Director filling the position left vacant with the retirement of Edward P. Dupcak.

“Jane Walters is an excellent manager and an asset to the agency,” said NCUA Chairman JoAnn Johnson. Having served in six geographical locations, time and again she has met and overcome challenges and has proven to be a flexible, resilient, competent leader. With her depth of experience and myriad of skills, I consider Jane Walters to be one of the agency’s best, and I am confident NCUA’s Region II office will be in excellent hands.”

As Region II director, Walters is responsible for the supervision and examination program of credit unions in Delaware, District of Columbia, Maryland, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia.

Walters’ career began with NCUA in 1981 as an examiner in Chicago, Ill. She progressed rapidly through the ranks becoming the director of Special Actions in Region II in 1987. Walters was named associate regional director of Region IV in 1990, and in 1994 she was appointed NCUA Controller. She served as regional director of Region II, Region VI, and most recently Region V prior to being selected NCUA deputy executive director in 2006, assisting the executive director in managing the daily operation of NCUA.

Ms. Walters holds a BS in Accounting from the University of Dayton and a MBA from Loyola University of Chicago.

The National Credit Union Administration charters and supervises federal credit unions. NCUA, with the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. government, also operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, insuring the accounts of over 85 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the majority of state-chartered credit unions. NCUA is funded by credit unions, not tax dollars.
