NCUA Issues Prohibition Orders

Alexandria, Va., July 9, 2007 – The National Credit Union Administration Board has issued prohibition orders for convicted felons Joseph E. Pogue and Jean T. Pogue to prohibit them from participating in any manner in the affairs of any federally insured financial institution.

Joseph E. Pogue and Jean T. Pogue, former officials of Unified Singers Federal Credit Union of Thomasville, Georgia, pled guilty to conspiracy to commit financial institution fraud and money laundering. Joseph and Jean Pogue were each sentenced to 60 months in prison followed by 36 months of supervised release, and they were ordered to pay $1,260,333 in restitution.

NCUA enforcement orders are online at click here, and may be inspected at NCUA's Office of General Counsel between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. Copies may be ordered by mail from NCUA, 1775 Duke St., Alexandria, Va. 22314-3428.

Violation of a prohibition order is a felony offense punishable by imprisonment and a fine of up to $1 million.

The National Credit Union Administration is the independent federal agency that charters and supervises federal credit unions. NCUA, with the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. government, operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, insuring the savings of over 85 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the majority of state-chartered credit unions.
