FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NCUA Issues Prohibition Orders

Alexandria, Va., March 25, 2008 – The National Credit Union Administration Board has issued orders prohibiting the following individuals from participating in the affairs of any federally insured financial institution.

Debra Elaine Finney, a former employee of GAF Federal Credit Union, Dallas, Texas, consented to a prohibition order without admitting or denying fault.

Sara B. Risewick, a former employee of St. Pius X Church Federal Credit Union, Rochester, N.Y., pled guilty to falsifying business records at the credit union and was sentenced to 5 years of supervised probation.

NCUA enforcement orders are online at click here, and may be inspected at NCUA's Office of General Counsel between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. Copies may be ordered by mail from NCUA, 1775 Duke St., Alexandria, Va. 22314-3428.

Violation of a prohibition order is a felony offense punishable by imprisonment and a fine of up to $1 million.

The National Credit Union Administration is the independent federal agency that charters and supervises federal credit unions. NCUA, with the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. government, operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, insuring the savings of over 86 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the majority of state-chartered credit unions.
