Vice Chairman Hood Announces His 2008 Risk Mitigation Summit Has Reached Capacity

July 15, 2008, Alexandria, Va. – National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) Vice Chairman Rodney E. Hood announced today that registration for his 2008 Risk Mitigation Summit, being held at the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago on August 7, 2008, is now full. However, due to overwhelming interest, you may register to be put on the Wait List.

“I am thrilled with the terrific response my 2008 Risk Mitigation Summit has generated. Unfortunately, due to limited space, we are no longer accepting registration forms for the Summit. However, I am happy to report that we have started a Wait List for those who remain interested in attending. Please see the following link for the Wait List Registration Form:

I would like to thank all of you who have expressed interest in this event,” Vice Chairman Hood said.

The National Credit Union Administration is the independent federal agency that regulates, charters and supervises federal credit unions. NCUA, with the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. government, also operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund (NCUSIF), insuring the deposits of over 85 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the majority of state-chartered credit unions.
