LAST CHANCE TO REGISTER FOR THE 75TH ANNIVERSARY SYMPOSIUM

Alexandria, Va., June 1, 2009 –Registration for the 75th Anniversary Symposium will close on Wednesday June 3 at 4:00 PM. A select number of registration spots have been left open for registration by the deadline.

The Symposium will be held June 9 and 10, 2009, at the Hyatt Regency Washington D.C. on Capitol Hill. The free, two-day event will celebrate 75 years of federal credit union history while providing a forum to discuss the future of federal credit unions in the 21st century.

The speaker line-up features special addresses by Representative Paul Kanjorski, currently Chairman of the House Financial Services Subcommittee on Capital Markets, Insurance, and Government Sponsored Enterprises and John Hope Bryant, Founder and CEO of Operation HOPE, Inc. and Vice Chairman of the U.S. President's Advisory Council on Financial Literacy.

The National Credit Union Administration is the independent federal agency that charters and supervises federal credit unions. NCUA, with the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. government, operates the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund (NCUSIF), insuring the savings of 89 million members in all federal credit unions and the vast majority of state-chartered credit unions. NCUA is supported by credit unions, not federal tax dollars.
