

National Credit Union
Administration
1775 Duke Street
Alexandria, VA 22314-3428
www.ncua.gov

Media Contact: NCUA Office of Public & Congressional Affairs
Phone: (703) 518-6330
Email: pacamail@ncua.gov

Corrected NCUA Media Release

NCUA Issues Prohibition Orders

Alexandria, Va., September 22, 2009 – The National Credit Union Administration Board has issued orders prohibiting the following individuals from participating in the affairs of any federally insured financial institution.

Chinithia Bills, a former employee of St. Charles Borromeo Church Federal Credit Union, New York, New York, was convicted of bank fraud and sentenced to 37 months in prison, 4 years of supervised probation, and ordered to pay $135,218.96 in restitution.

Trena C. Bledsoe, a former employee of Appalachian Community Federal Credit Union, Kingsport, Tennessee, was convicted of embezzlement and making a false oath and account in relation to a bankruptcy case. She was sentenced to 30 months in prison, 5 years supervised probation, and ordered to pay $105,900 in restitution.

Ollis Grayson, Jr., a former employee of Dallas Educators Credit Union, Selma, Alabama, was convicted of fraud in connection with his employment at Dallas Educators Credit Union and sentenced to 6 months in prison, 5 years of supervised release, and ordered to pay $75,743 in restitution.

Quartus Omar Henderson, former teller at Security Credit Union, Flint, Michigan, was convicted of credit union embezzlement.

Aurelia D. Jennings, a former employee of Piedmont Hospital Federal Credit Union, Atlanta, Georgia, was convicted of theft affiliated with the credit union and sentenced to 15 years in prison, with 1 year served in confinement, a total 14 years probation, and ordered to pay $136,165 in restitution.

Joanna Lynn McGee, a former employee of TEXDOT-WF Credit Union, Wichita Falls, Texas, was convicted of embezzlement, aiding and abetting and sentenced to 71 months in prison, 5 years supervised probation, and ordered to pay $2,063,891 in restitution.

Scott-Alexander L. McKenzie, a former loan officer of Rochdale Co-Op Federal Credit Union, Jamaica, New York, without admitting or denying fault, signed an order prohibiting him from participating in the affairs of any federally insured financial depository institution.

Jessica Lynn Morgan, a former employee of American 1 Federal Credit Union, Jackson, Michigan, was convicted of theft and sentenced to 365 days in prison, 60 months of supervised release, and ordered to pay $100,570 in restitution.

Nora Phelps, a former employee of South Jersey Federal Credit Union, Deptford, New Jersey, was convicted of bank fraud and sentenced to serve 33 months in prison, 5 years of supervised probation, and ordered to pay $342,827 in restitution.

Lee Woong Song, a former manager of Korean American Federal Credit Union, Oakland, California, has signed an agreement and is prohibited from participating in the affairs of any federally insured depository institution.

Elsie P. Taylor, a former manager of City of Wilson Federal Credit Union, Wilson, North Carolina, was convicted of embezzlement and obtaining property by false pretenses and was sentenced to a suspended sentence of a minimum 6 months, maximum 8 months in prison, placed on supervised probation for 24 months, ordered to complete 100 hours of community service and ordered to pay $795 in fines, court costs and community service fees.

Patricia Ann Taylor, a former office manager of Nashville Post Office Credit Union, Nashville, Tennessee, was convicted of money laundering and bank fraud and ordered to serve 13 months in prison, 3 years of supervised release, and ordered to pay $269,580 in restitution.

NCUA enforcement orders are online at click here, and may be inspected at NCUA's Office of General Counsel between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. Copies may be ordered by mail from NCUA, 1775 Duke St., Alexandria, Va. 22314-3428.

Violation of a prohibition order is a felony offense punishable by imprisonment and a fine of up to $1 million.

The National Credit Union Administration is the independent federal agency that charters and supervises federal credit unions. NCUA, with the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. government, operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, insuring the savings of over 86 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the majority of state-chartered credit unions.