NCUA Combines LA and Phoenix Town Hall Meetings

Topics Expanded at All Town Hall Meetings

October 12, 2010, Alexandria, Va. – The National Credit Union Administration is combining the Phoenix and Los Angeles Town Hall Meetings into the single location of Los Angeles, Calif., on October 29 to consolidate efforts and minimize expenditures and resources.

The agency is hosting ten meetings across the country in October in an effort to reach as many stakeholders as possible to discuss the comprehensive new rules relating to corporate credit union operations, and corporate legacy assets resolution, as well as other topics that participants want to raise with NCUA Board members and senior staff. Free NCUA Town Hall meetings are being held in Atlanta, Boston, Dallas, Chicago, Columbus, Detroit, Los Angeles, Orlando, Portland, and Alexandria, Va.

Town Hall Meetings are open to all credit union stakeholders, and NCUA encourages audience participation.

NCUA is the independent federal agency that regulates, charters and supervises federal credit unions. With the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. government, NCUA operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, insuring the deposits of over 90 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the overwhelming majority of state-chartered credit unions.
