NCUA Reschedules Open Board Meeting

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (June 7, 2011) – The National Credit Union Administration Board has rescheduled the open board meeting originally set for Thursday, June 16. The open board meeting is now scheduled for Friday, June 17 at 10 am.

NCUA is the independent federal agency created by the U.S. Congress to regulate, charter and supervise federal credit unions. With the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. government, NCUA operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, insuring the deposits of more than 90 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the overwhelming majority of state-chartered credit unions.
