NCUA Revises July Board Meeting Agenda

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (July 20, 2011) – The National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) Board meeting agenda issued for Thursday, July 21 has been modified. One item has been deleted from the open session – Final Rule, Net Worth and Equity Ratio Definitions.

The revised agenda for this week’s meeting is available online at: click here.

NCUA is the independent federal agency created by the U.S. Congress to regulate, charter and supervise federal credit unions. With the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. Government, NCUA operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, insuring the deposits of more than 90 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the overwhelming majority of state-chartered credit unions.
