NCUA Issues Prohibition Order

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (Jan. 11, 2012) – The National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) has issued an order prohibiting the following individual from participating in the affairs of any federally insured financial institution:

- Rizwaan Mohammed Ansari, a former employee of Wheatland Federal Credit Union, Lancaster, Pa. was convicted of theft by unlawful taking. Ansari was sentenced to five years supervised probation and ordered to pay restitution in the amount of $11,640.99.

NCUA enforcement orders are online here and you may inspect them at NCUA’s Office of General Counsel between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. You may order copies by mail from NCUA, 1775 Duke St., Alexandria, Va. 22314-3428.

Violation of a prohibition order is a felony offense punishable by imprisonment and a fine of up to $1 million.

NCUA is the independent federal agency created by the U.S. Congress to regulate, charter and supervise federal credit unions. With the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. Government, NCUA operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, insuring the deposits of more than 91 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the overwhelming majority of state-chartered credit unions.
