Matz Opens Registration for Third “Listening Session” June 5 in St. Louis

Credit Union Officials Invited to Session Co-Hosted by NCUA Region 4

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (April 2, 2012) – National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) Board Chairman Debbie Matz today opened registration for her third “Listening Session,” which will take place on June 5 from 1:00–4:00 p.m. at the Hilton St. Louis on 1 South Broadway.

“We are taking our listening tour to all regions of our nation,” said Chairman Matz. “We want to hear directly from credit union officials and volunteers across America about how we can improve our exam process, regulations, and any other initiatives to protect the credit union industry’s safety and soundness.”

Chairman Matz is planning Listening Sessions for the following dates, times, and locations:

Listening Session Date	Time	Location	NCUA Region
May 2	1:00–4:00 EDT	Boston	1
May 9	1:00–4:00 EDT	Alexandria	2
June 5	1:00–4:00 CDT	St. Louis	4
June 12	1:00–4:00 EDT	Orlando	3
July 10	1:00–4:00 PDT	San Diego	2
July 31	1:00–4:00 MDT	Denver	5

Registration for all Listening Sessions will be free online. To register for any of the first three Listening Sessions, click <http://www.ncua.gov/News/Pages/listen.aspx>.

Participation is open to the first 150 people who register. Participants will have opportunities to dialog with NCUA Board members, senior NCUA staff, and supervisory examiners from the NCUA Region co-hosting each Listening Session. Participants will also be invited to contribute to roundtable discussions with their peers.

NCUA is the independent federal agency created by the U.S. Congress to regulate, charter, and supervise federal credit unions. With the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. Government, NCUA operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, insuring the deposits of nearly 92 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the overwhelming majority of state-chartered credit unions.
