NCUA “Listening Session” in Orlando Changed to Wednesday, June 13

Region 3 Session Moved One Day Later

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (April 18, 2012) – The National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) has changed the “Listening Session” in Orlando to Wednesday, June 13 instead of Tuesday, June 12. The time and location remain the same: 1:00–4:00 p.m. at the Rosen Centre Hotel.

The Orlando event will be the fourth in NCUA’s series of six Listening Sessions across America. Hosted by NCUA Board Chairman Debbie Matz, the Listening Sessions provide opportunities for credit union officials and volunteers to suggest how NCUA can improve the exam process, regulations, and any other initiatives to protect credit union safety and soundness.

Chairman Matz is planning Listening Sessions for the following dates, times, and locations:

Listening Session Date	Time	Location	NCUA Region
May 2	1:00–4:00 EDT	Boston	1
May 9	1:00–4:00 EDT	Alexandria	2
June 5	1:00–4:00 CDT	St. Louis	4
June 13	1:00–4:00 EDT	Orlando	3
July 10	1:00–4:00 PDT	San Diego	2
July 31	1:00–4:00 MDT	Denver	5

Registration for the first five sessions is free online at <http://www.ncua.gov/News/Pages/listen.aspx>.

Participation is open to the first 150 people who register. Space is still available at all sessions.

Participants will have opportunities to dialogue with NCUA Board members, senior NCUA staff, and supervisory examiners from the NCUA Region co-hosting each session. Participants will also be invited to contribute to roundtable discussions with their peers.

NCUA is the independent federal agency created by the U.S. Congress to regulate, charter, and supervise federal credit unions. With the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. Government, NCUA operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, insuring the deposits of nearly 92 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the overwhelming majority of state-chartered credit unions.
