NCUA Issues Prohibition Order

ALEXANDRIA, VA. (May 29, 2012) – The National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) issued an order prohibiting the following individual from participating in the affairs of any federally insured financial institution:

- Alexander Baduria Flores, a former employee of Capstone Federal Credit Union, Aliso Viejo, Calif., was convicted of grand theft. Flores was sentenced to 120 days in prison, three years supervised probation, and ordered to pay restitution.

NCUA enforcement orders are online at <http://go.usa.gov/yiJ> and you may inspect them at NCUA's Office of General Counsel between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. You may order copies by mail from NCUA, 1775 Duke St., Alexandria, Va. 22314-3428.

Violation of a prohibition order is a felony offense punishable by imprisonment and a fine of up to $1 million.

NCUA is the independent federal agency created by the U.S. Congress to regulate, charter, and supervise federal credit unions. With the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. Government, NCUA operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, insuring the deposits of nearly 92 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the overwhelming majority of state-chartered credit unions.
