NCUA Board Cancels June Open Meeting

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (June 20, 2012) – The National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) Board agreed to cancel the open meeting previously scheduled for June 21 and to delete one supervisory matter from the closed Board meeting agenda.

The NCUA Board has now cancelled three of its first six scheduled open meetings this year.

The closed Board meeting scheduled for June 21 will now take place at 10 a.m. The closed Board meeting will address four supervisory activities and a personnel matter.

NCUA is the independent federal agency created by the U.S. Congress to regulate, charter, and supervise federal credit unions. With the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. Government, NCUA operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, insuring the deposits of more than 92 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the overwhelming majority of state-chartered credit unions.
