General Comment:In regards to allowing only 60 days to comply with the new rule regarding new signage for NCUA insured credit unions, I would like for you to consider allowing until January 1, 2007 for credit union documents to be updated. This endeavor will be very costly for all credit unions and most budgets won't easily handle an expenditure of this magnitude with such ease. Please consider also that there are a great number of documents that will need revising within each credit union and it will be virtually impossible for all credit unions to be in compliance within the proposed 60 day time period.

Thank you.
