Dear Secretary of the Board Poliquin,

Every American should have easy access to a credit union for financial services. As a member/owner, I feel that my credit union represents my best interests. The credit union has many programs in place to meet my banking needs and offers many programs for others. Unfortunately, my credit union is only open to a very limited number of people. I support any new regulation that can make my credit union available to more people, as it is an optimal place for banking services.

Please pass the proposed rule as soon as possible so that more people can join credit unions.

Sincerely,

Jeanine Gerstbrein
