Dear Board Secretary Polquin,

Greetings from sunny Miami, Florida!

As a credit union member, I appreciate that my credit union is always there for people during the financial crisis. I realize that not everyone can join a credit union because of strict membership rules imposed by your agency. I fully support any changes to these rules that allow more people in my community to join a credit union. I appreciate the efforts that the National Credit Union Administration is taking to make it easier for credit unions to serve more Americans. I hope you will finalize your proposal soon.

We need credit unions doing more of what they're doing. Your proposal makes that possible.

Thanks for listening.

Sincerely,

Stephen Webb
