Dear Secretary of the Board Poliquin,

Dear Chairman Matz;

During the financial crisis, credit unions continued to lend to small businesses when other lenders - aka banks - pulled back lines of credit.

I am glad to hear that NCUA is looking for ways to let credit unions keep lending.

As you consider the rule, please keep in mind that credit unions exist to provide credit to their members, and look for ways to improve the rule to ensure that continues to happen.

Small businesses need more access to credit, not less.

Sincerely,
