NCUA's 2011-2016 Strategic Goals

- Ensure a safe, sound, and healthy credit union system.
- Promote credit union access to all eligible persons.
- Further develop a regulatory environment that is transparent and effective.
- Cultivate an environment that fosters a diverse, well-trained and motivated staff.

NCUA is the independent federal agency created by the U.S. Congress to regulate, charter and supervise federal credit unions. With the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. Government, NCUA operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, insuring the deposits of more than 94 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the overwhelming majority of state-chartered credit unions.
