Citizens Community Credit Union Frequently Asked Questions

Is my money safe and secure?

Yes, member accounts at Citizens Community Credit Union remain safe and fully insured up to the maximums established in federal law.

Administered by the National Credit Union Administration, the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund insures member accounts owned by an individual for up to $250,000, and a member’s interest in all joint accounts combined is insured up to $250,000. The Share Insurance Fund also separately protects IRA and KEOGH retirement accounts up to $250,000. The Share Insurance Fund has the backing of the full faith and credit of the United States.

NCUA’s online Share Insurance Estimator allows credit union members to estimate their share insurance coverage. Once an individual provides the required data, the Share Insurance Estimator produces a report with detailed explanations of insurance coverage.

Members with additional questions about their insurance coverage may contact the National Credit Union Administration’s Consumer Assistance Center toll free at 800-755-1030. The center answers calls Monday through Friday between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Eastern.

You can visit the Share Insurance Coverage page of NCUA’s MyCreditUnion.gov consumer website at any time for more information about insurance coverage.

What is the current status of Citizens Community Credit Union?

NCUA placed Citizens Community Credit Union into conservatorship on June 23, 2017. In a conservatorship, NCUA’s priority is to protect the assets of the members of Citizens Community Credit Union while working to maintain safe-and-sound credit union operations.

What is the National Credit Union Administration?

NCUA is an independent agency of the federal government that, among other things, operates and manages the Share Insurance Fund, which insures accounts at all federally insured credit unions, including Citizens Community Credit Union.

What is a conservatorship?

A conservatorship means NCUA has assumed control of Citizens Community Credit Union to ensure its financial stability and safe-and-sound operation. In a conservatorship, NCUA works to address issues related to a credit union’s operations and financial condition while maintaining member services.
Can I still conduct business at Citizens Community Credit Union?
