The National Credit Union Administration Board (“NCUA BOARD”), by and through its undersigned counsel, and Kimberly Braxton, a former loan officer at the Shell Employees Houston Texas Federal Credit Union hereby stipulate and agree as follows:

1. Consideration

The National Credit Union Administration (“NCUA”) is of the opinion that grounds exist to initiate an administrative prohibition against Kimberly Braxton pursuant to Section 206 of the Federal Credit Union Act, 12 U.S.C. §1786. Kimberly Braxton, without admitting or denying that said grounds exist (except those set forth as to Jurisdiction in paragraph 2), desires to avoid the time, cost and expense of administrative litigation. Accordingly, Kimberly Braxton consents to the issuance by the NCUA Board of an Order of Prohibition (“Order”) and hereby stipulates and agrees to the following terms in consideration of the settlement, compromise and resolution of all potential administrative claims and charges that have been or might be asserted by the NCUA Board against Kimberly Braxton growing out of her position as a former loan officer at the Shell Employees Houston Texas Federal Credit Union.

2. Jurisdiction

a. Kimberly Braxton is an “institution-affiliated party” within the meaning of Section 206(r) of the Federal Credit Union Act, 12 U.S.C. §1786(r).

b. Pursuant to the authority vested in the NCUA Board under Section 206(g) of the Federal Credit Union Act, 12 U.S.C. §1786(g), and Part 747 of the National Credit Union Administration Rules and Regulations, it is the appropriate Federal agency to maintain enforcement proceedings against an “institution-affiliated party”. Therefore, Kimberly Braxton is subject to the authority of the National Credit Union Administration to initiate and maintain prohibition proceedings against her.

3. Consent

Kimberly Braxton consents to the issuance by the NCUA Board of the accompanying Order of Prohibition. She further agrees to comply with its terms upon issuance and stipulates that the Order complies with all requirements of the Federal Credit Union Act.

4. Waivers

Kimberly Braxton waives her right to the administrative hearing provided for in Section 206(g)(4) of the Federal Credit Union Act, 12 U.S.C. §1786(g)(4). She further waives her right to seek judicial review of the Order or to otherwise challenge the validity of the Order.

5. Other Actions

Pursuant to this Stipulation, the Order settles and resolves any NCUA Board claims, known and unknown, against Kimberly Braxton as provided by Paragraph 1 of this Stipulation. The Stipulation, however, does not release, discharge, compromise, settle, resolve or in any way affect any actions, claims, charges against, or liabilities that arise and that may be or have been brought by Shell Employees Houston Texas Federal Credit Union, or any federal or state government agency or entity other than the NCUA Board.
